

APPLEJACK.

Bank Account

Its our preference that you set up an Australian bank account if you intended to earn a wage/salary. This will allow your employer to deposit money more easily, and you should receive it the next day. There are Global Currency Cards/Accounts that allow you hold and receive foreign currency without a fee. Whatever you choose, its best to do your research and you do it using Finder.com.au - HERE